YOUR GATEWAY TO COASTAL ADVENTURE

WANDER MORE.
WORRY LESS.
WELCOME TO FOLKESTONE.

Summer has crash-landed on the Kent coast like a seagull on chips, and Folkestone is in full glorious swing. Whether you're a local legend or an intrepid traveller lured by the scent of sea salt and grilled halloumi, there's never been a better time to visit. At The View Hotel and The Cliffe Lounge Bar & Kitchen, we're embracing long days, wild skies, and the art of doing absolutely everything (or absolutely nothing).

UNMISSABLE ART
EXPLOSION HITS
FOLKESTONE'S SHORES!

Imagine this, an entire town turned into an art gallery. That's the Folkestone Triennial for you, one of the UK's boldest public art exhibitions. With artworks popping up in laneways, beaches, rooftops, and possibly your favourite coffee spot, this year's theme promises to dazzle and disrupt in equal measure. And when your feet get tired from all the artistic wandering? Our clifftop terrace is the perfect place to digest the day over a cocktail or three.

COASTAL BITES, CLIFFTOP NIGHTS

SEAVIEW SPIRITS & SUNSET PLATTERS

Summer calls for sea views and sizzling plates. At The Cliffe Lounge Bar & Kitchen, we're serving a summer menu that's a love letter to local produce and global flavours. Think tapas with attitude, zingy cocktails, and sweet treats worth ditching the diet for. Whether you're in for a lazy bite, golden hour drinks or a full-on dinner celebration, we'll be ready with chilled glasses and warm welcomes.

SUMMER IS FOR WANDERING WILD

EXPERIENCE ALL THAT SOUTHEAST
ENGLAND HAS TO OFFER

This year, ditch the airport chaos and discover the unfiltered beauty of the Kentish coast. Walk along England's Heritage Coastline, cycle one of the most scenic routes in Kent (seriously, Google it), and get wonderfully lost between Folkestone, Hythe, and Dymchurch. There's vintage charm in every direction, and we're your boutique basecamp in the middle of it all.

Summer in Folkestone isn't just about the sea and the sky, it's about the stories being written here. With the Triennial, the return of the Folkestone Book Festival (November), food fairs, live music, vintage cars, beach races, and more, our town is alive with celebration. And when the day winds down, let your night wind up with us, cheers to sunset dinners, spontaneous toasts, and making memories that don't require a passport.

Escape the Expected. Whether you're checking in for a long weekend or just popping in for a cocktail with a view, we're here to help you escape the expected. This summer, experience something different. Something delightfully local. Something utterly unforgettable. The sea is calling. Your table's waiting.
